Title of the Practice

1. Financial aid to the deserving students by the college

Objectives of the Practice

It has been obtained from the profile of the students after the joining the programme of the college that there are many students coming from rural & Tribal area with very low economic background. It is impossible to them to sustain without the financial support to complete the necessary and required resources fulfilling the course materials. So, the noble objectives of the practice are

- To extent financial support to the most needy students especially from tribal region so that they should not escape out from the education process.
- To promote quality among the students.
- To inculcate the values of sense of responsibility among the students.
- The expected outcomes is that the students should be able to complete their degree with good marks. The beneficiaries should treat the needy with principle of "lend a helping hand without discrimination."

Title of the Practice

2. Zero problem period

Objectives of the Practice
- Mentoring the students with issues related to theoretical aspects with one teacher as mentor for every 12 students.
- Creating a conducive environment through solving their problems with respect to various courses of the programme.
- Making an arrangement for special sessions / theory classes for slow learners as well as the students having serious linguistic problems in understanding various concepts.
- Giving technical and tactical knowledge pertaining to the aspects of the practical programme.

The practice is the generally observed 2nd and 4th Saturday on every month. Through this practice the students having problems related to curricular, co-curricular, extracurricular and especially practical and practice teaching in schools discussed with theory, extension activities and practical Incharge. The Incharge related to above mentioned programme notes down the problems of the students which latter on discussed with the other teachers, alumni and head of the institution in the meetings.